By combining theory with text analysis and contextual anchoring, it introduces students and scholars alike to a vast field of research which encompasses concepts such as intermediality, multi- and plurimediality, intermedial reference, transmediality, ekphrasis, as well as related concepts such as visual culture, remediation, adaptation, and multimodality, which are all discussed in connection with literary examples. Hence each of the 30 contributions spans both a theoretical approach and concrete analysis of literary texts from different centuries and different Anglophone cultures.

business class garuda indonesia: TRAVEL: The Guide Doug Lansky, 2014-10-27 TRAVEL: The Guide is an insightful, irreverent, and highly visual new take on travel that will challenge readers to rethink the way they look at travel and how they interact with the world around them. It's like an eye-opening TED Talk on travel that you can flip through at your own pace. Jason Cochran, author and editor for Frommer's guides, described it this way: It's not really just about travel. It's about exploding every stereotype, fear, and expectation you have about the rest of the world and your place in it. Once you start flipping through, you'll be consuming little knowledge bombs like potato chips. Good luck stopping. And good luck seeing things the same way ever again." Mike Carter, a contributor to The Observer and The Guardian wrote: "Turns on its head just about everything we thought we knew about how to get the best out of our travels, gloriously debunking the myths and exposing the clichés along the way."

business class garuda indonesia: The Global Japanese Restaurant James Farrer, David L. Wank, 2023-05-31 With more than 150,000 Japanese restaurants around the world, Japanese cuisine has become truly global. Through the transnational culinary mobilities of migrant entrepreneurs, workers, ideas and capital, Japanese cuisine spread and adapted to international tastes. But this expansion is also entangled in culinary politics, ranging from authenticity claims and status competition among restaurateurs and consumers to societal racism, immigration policies, and soft power politics that have shaped the transmission and transformation of Japanese cuisine. Such politics has involved appropriation, oppression, but also cooperation across ethnic lines. Ultimately, the restaurant is a continually reinvented imaginary of Japan represented in concrete form to consumers by restaurateurs, cooks, and servers of varied nationalities and ethnicities who act as cultural intermediaries. The Global Japanese Restaurant: Mobilities, Imaginaries, and Politics uses an innovative global perspective and rich ethnographic data on six continents to fashion a comprehensive account of the creation and reception of the "global Japanese restaurant" in the modern world. Drawing heavily on untapped primary sources in multiple languages, this book centers on the stories of Japanese migrants in the first half of the twentieth century, and then on non-Iapanese chefs and restaurateurs from Asia, Africa, Europe, Australasia, and the Americas whose mobilities, since the mid-1900s, have been reshaping and spreading Japanese cuisine. The narrative covers a century and a half of transnational mobilities, global imaginaries, and culinary politics at different scales. It shifts the spotlight of Japanese culinary globalization from the "West" to refocus the story on Japan's East Asian neighbors and highlights the growing role of non-Japanese actors (chefs, restaurateurs, suppliers, corporations, service staff) since the 1980s. These essays explore restaurants as social spaces, creating a readable and compelling history that makes original contributions to Japan studies, food studies, and global studies. The transdisciplinary framework will be a pioneering model for combining fieldwork and archival research to analyze the complexities of culinary globalization.

business class garuda indonesia: Management Practices in Asia Christiane Prange, Ralph Kattenbach, 2019-08-20 Asia is a continent of contradictions and boundaries; it offers exciting business opportunities, but is also characterized by unpredictability and conflict. While flexibility and creativity are in the DNA of many startups in China, major players like Xiaomi and Alibaba have also emerged as global giants, challenging established global competitors. The authors of this book show that these companies are crossing various boundaries - between cultures, mindsets, and perspectives. At the same time, Western companies entering Asian markets face challenges that are very different from those on their home turf. This book addresses the needs of current and future managers doing business in Asia, who need to understand the individual, social and business challenges that can arise from crossing boundaries. The respective case studies provide essential insights on how several Asian companies have made impressive strides towards becoming established players; how the revival of local brands and growing pride in local products has become a major challenge for global competition; how the need to actively practice corporate social responsibility in Asian markets is currently challenging many companies; and how the need for individual and team coaching among the members of management to support a company's development has grown tremendously, calling for new solutions.

business class garuda indonesia: The Report: Indonesia 2014 Oxford Business Group, 2014-05-21 On the cusp of 2014 national elections and the 2015 integration of the ASEAN Economic Community, Indonesia is poised to continue its rapid economic expansion. While the country's natural resources are still plentiful, by channelling foreign direct investment into the right areas, the government is ensuring that true potential, in terms of value and manufacturing, is achieved. By inviting targeted investment and adapting existing regulatory frameworks, the government has taken significant steps to facilitate foreign investment and the development of value-added industries. Indonesia is a country renowned for its abundance of natural resources, which include oil, gas, coal, nickel, tin, copper, gold and silver. While slightly down on the previous year, the country's total oil production for 2012 stood at 861,000 barrels per day, accounting for approximately 1.2% of the world's oil production. Indonesia remains the world's largest exporter of thermal coal, exporting a total of 304m tonnes in 2012 to countries such as Japan, South Korea, China and India. The country continues to be the dominant nation in South-east Asia politically and economically, and its participation within ASEAN in particular will likely determine the shape of regional integration, with the introduction of the ASEAN Economic Community (AEC) in 2015 looming as the bloc's next major milestone.

business class garuda indonesia: We Have Tired of Violence Matt Easton, 2022-06-07 Named a Best Book of the Year by The Economist A chilling work of true crime about the midair murder of a human rights activist, set against a riveting political drama in the world's fourth-largest nation On a warm Jakarta night in September 2004, Munir said goodbye to his wife and friends at the airport. He was bound for the Netherlands to pursue a master's degree in human rights. But Munir never reached Amsterdam alive. Before his plane touched down, the thirty-eight-year-old—one of the leading human rights activists of his generation—lay dead in the fourth row. Munir's daring investigation of the killings and abductions that occurred over three decades of authoritarian rule by the former president, Suharto, had earned him powerful enemies. Undeterred, Munir's wife, Suciwati, and his close friend, Usman Hamid, launched their own investigation. They soon uncovered a conspiracy involving spies, a mysterious co-pilot, threats of violence and black magic, and deadly poison. Drawing on interviews, courtroom observation, leaked documents, and police files, this book uncovers the dramatic murder plot and the titanic struggle to bring the perpetrators of Munir's death to justice. Just as Patrick Radden Keefe's Say Nothing did for Northern Ireland, We Have Tired of Violence tells the story of a shocking crime that serves as a window into a captivating land still struggling to shake off a terrible legacy.

business class garuda indonesia: Havayollarında hizmet: konfor, faaliyet ve performans iliskisinin değerlendirilmesi Dr. Tüzün Tolga İNAN, 2019-10-20 17 Aralık 1903 tarihinde Wright Kardeşlerin ilk başarılı motorlu uçuş denemesiyle başlayan sivil havacılık tarihi günümüzde dünyanın en büyük endüstrilerinden biri haline gelmiştir. Her ne kadar 2003 yılına kadar ülkemiz için sivil havacılık büyük bir aşama kaydetmese de, 2003 yılından sonra milat niteliğinde gelişmeler gerçekleşmiştir. Doktor ünvanını aldığım halen sivil havacılık alanında lisanslandırmaya sahip tek Üniversite olan Anadolu Üniversitesi ile başlayan sivil havacılık alanında ihtisas veren Üniversite ve Meslek Yüksekokulları, özellikle 2011 yılından itibaren sayıca üst limitlere ulaşmıştır. Ancak unutmamak gerekir ki, havacılık bir nevi aşkla ifa edilmesi gereken bir meslektir. İçerisinde pilotaj, hat ve bakım teknisyenliği, uçuş harekat yöneticiliği (dispeçerlik), uçuş ve misafir kontrol uzmanlığı, kabin, harekat, volcu hizmetleri ve kargo memurluğu olmak üzere bircok is tanımı bulundurmaktadır. Kendim için düşündüğüm zaman bana havacılığı sevdiren kişi babam olmuştur. Özellikle sektörel olarak 30 yılın üzerinde Türk Hava Yolları tecrübesinin bulunması ve beni havacılık alanında doktora yapmaya itmesi kariyerim için en önemli adımlardan bir tanesi oldu. Tabii herşey burada anlatmak istediğim kadar güllük gülistanlık olmamakla birlikte, vardiyalı çalışma düzeni ve yoğun tempo havacılığın olmazsa olmazıdır. Bu nedenle öğrencilere ve bu alanda kariyer yapmak istevenlere tavsiyem, havacılığın para için yapılacak bir meslek olmadığının bilincinde olmaları gerektiğidir. Bu kitabı yayımlama sebeplerimdem bir tanesi de kamuoyu tarafından bilinmeyen ya da bilindiği zannedilen bu endüstride hizmet-konfor ve performans parametrelerinin ne olduğunun ve bir havayolu şirketini hangi ölçüde etkilediğini göstermek istememdir. Bu kitap umarım hem akademik hem de sektörel camiada tüm havacılık çalışanlarına ve havacılık sevdalılarına faydalı olacak bir eser olacaktır. Unutmamak gerekir ki burada önemli olan konu 5 yıllık değerler ile 2016 yılında hangi verilerin elde edildiği değil, bu verilerin havacılık şirketleri için öneminin farkına varılması olacaktır.

Taneja to address the ongoing challenges and opportunities facing all generations of airlines. Firstly, it challenges and encourages airline managements to take a deeper dive into new ways of doing business. Secondly, it provides a framework for identifying and developing strategies and capabilities, as well as executing them efficiently and effectively, to change the focus from cost reduction to revenue enhancement and from competitive advantage to comparative advantage. Based on the author's own extensive experience and ongoing work in the global airline industry, as well as through a synthesis of leading business practices both inside and outside of the industry, Designing Future-Oriented Airline Businesses sets out to demystify numerous concepts being discussed within the airline industry and to facilitate managements to identify and articulate the boundaries of their business models. It provides material from which managements can set about answering the key questions, especially with respect to strategies, capabilities and execution, and pursue an effective redesign of their business. As with the author's previous books, the primary audience is senior-level practitioners of differing generations of airlines worldwide as well as related businesses. The material presented continues to be at a pragmatic level, not an academic exercise, to lead managements to ask themselves and their teams some critical thought-provoking questions.
