For instance, during a school week, they may work a maximum of 18 hours, while during non-school weeks, they can work up to 40 hours. It's crucial for both employers and employees to be aware of these regulations to ensure compliance.

Types of Work Prohibited

business that hire 16 year olds: Developing Next Generation Leaders for Transgenerational Entrepreneurial Family Enterprises Pramodita Sharma, Nunzia Auletta, Rocki-Lee DeWitt, Maria José Parada, Mohar Yusof, 2015-10-30 This illustrative book considers the interface of business structures, contexts, and leadership building blocks to explore the contingent nature of leadership development in transgenerational entrepreneurship. Longitudinal case studies of 27 family firms in nine different countries provide a rich, global selection of leadership development insights by examining the roles of values, professionalization, leadership style and other contingent factors. The diversity of cases and chapters provides a rich foundation for insight into the pathways currently in use to develop the next generation leaders, illuminating the strategies and pathways of successful transgenerational family enterprises. By examining the available literature and one or more case studies, each chapter draws pragmatic conclusions, with findings that suggest the importance of focusing on leadership as a shared capability, transmission of values to maintain an entrepreneurial culture, the fit between professionalization and values to increase transgenerational potential, the need to address the structure of the business and the focus on parenting to develop next generations. This path-breaking book will inform family business researchers as they explore the ways in use to develop the next generation.
