MUP is proud to have acquired the ANZ rights to I Lost My Love in Baghdad. In January 2007, Andi Parhamovich was killed in Baghdad. She was a 28-year-old American aid worker whose car had been ambushed in one of Baghdad's worst neighbourhoods. Andi was also engaged to the author, Newsweek's Iraqi correspondent Michael Hastings. Hastings charts the ups and downs of their relationship, a modern love story played out against the ultra-violent backdrop of Iraq. From the day they met in New York to her tragic killing, it is a story that tries to answer questions about our involvement in the war in Iraq. This is Michael Hastings' scathing, savage picture of a hopeless war gone horribly wrong.

business platinum card from american express news: Korthuset Linus Larsson, Daniel Goldberg, 2014-04-28 År 2005 släpptes en alarmerande rapport från värdetransportbranschen. På bara sex år hade rånare kommit över 450 miljoner kronor i Sverige. Det placerade oss bland de värst drabbade länderna i Europa. Fyra år senare kom en siffra över hur mycket pengar som stjäls från vanliga kontokort. Det var minst lika mycket - under ett enda år. Korthuset är den avslöjande berättelsen om hur en märklig värld tilläts växa fram. Om hur dåtidens bankrån med dragna vapen, krossade rutor och en flyktbil runt hörnet ersattes av en ny sorts högteknologiska stölder. Här möter vi korttjuven på gatan, det tekniska geniet bakom kulisserna och den frustrerade polismannen som svär över hur bankerna mörkar och tystar ner problemet. Men också säkerhetschefen vars jobb inte är att förhindra alla stölder, utan se till att precis lagom många släpps igenom. Kortbedrägerier och digital ekonomisk brottslighet har snabbt etablerat sig som en av de mest lönsamma nischerna i den kriminella underjorden. Varje år stjäls flera hundra miljoner kronor från vanliga svenskers bankkonton, via sedan länge kända sprickor i våra moderna, digitala betalningssystem. Från manipulerade bankomater och falska köpterminaler till specialskrivna virus som i tysthet smygs in i våra datorer. Pengarna slussas ut från Sverige, inte sällan med bankkonton i Östeuropa som slutdestination. Varje år tjänar de svenska bankerna miljarder på att vi använder våra betalkort. För dem vore det en smal sak att sätta ett omedelbart stopp för bedrägerierna, om det inte vore för att luckorna i systemet inte kan täppas till utan att lönsamheten naggas i kanten. Ett par hundra miljoner kronor ner i fickorna på den organiserade brottsligheten är ett lågt pris att betala för intäkter som är flera gånger högre.

business platinum card from american express news: Building Atlanta Herman J. Russell, Bob Andelman, Andrew Young, 2014-04-01 Born into a blue-collar family in the Jim Crow South, Herman J. Russell built a shoeshine business when he was twelve years old—and used the profits to buy a vacant lot where he built a duplex while he was still a teen. Over the next fifty years, he continued to build businesses, amassing one of the nation's most profitable minority-owned conglomerates. In Building Atlanta, Russell shares his inspiring life story and reveals how he overcame racism, poverty, and a debilitating speech impediment to become one of the most successful African American entrepreneurs, Atlanta civic leaders, and unsung heroes of the civil rights movement. Not just a typical rags-to-riches story, Russell achieved his success through focus, planning, and humility, and he shares his winning advice throughout. As a millionaire builder before the civil rights movement took hold and a friend of Dr. King, Ralph Abernathy, and Andrew Young, he quietly helped finance the civil rights crusade, putting up bond for protestors and providing the funds that kept King's dream alive. He provides a wonderful behind-the-scenes look at the role the business community, both black and white working together, played in Atlanta's peaceful progression from the capital of the racially divided Old South to the financial center of the New South.
