The College of Business and Economics at Cal State Fullerton is dedicated to providing high-quality education that meets the demands of the ever-evolving business landscape. With a commitment to academic excellence, the college offers various undergraduate and graduate programs tailored to equip students with the necessary skills and knowledge. The curriculum is designed to be practical and relevant, integrating theory with real-world applications.

Students in the business programs benefit from an experienced faculty who bring both academic knowledge and industry experience into the classroom. This blend of expertise enhances the learning experience, allowing students to gain insights from real-world scenarios. Additionally, the college emphasizes ethical decision-making and social responsibility, preparing students to be conscientious leaders in their future careers.

Business Majors Offered

Cal State Fullerton provides a diverse array of business majors, each focusing on different aspects of the business world. The primary undergraduate business majors include:

- Accounting
- Finance
- Marketing
- Management
- Information Systems
- International Business
- Business Administration

Accounting

The Accounting major prepares students for careers in public accounting, corporate finance, and tax management. Students learn about financial reporting, auditing, and taxation, equipping them with the skills necessary to navigate the complex world of finance.

Finance

The Finance major focuses on financial management, investment analysis, and risk assessment. Students gain expertise in areas such as corporate finance, personal finance, and financial markets, preparing them for roles in banking, investment firms, and corporate finance departments.

Marketing

The Marketing major equips students with skills in market research, consumer behavior, and strategic marketing. Graduates are prepared for careers in advertising, brand management, and digital marketing, where they can apply their knowledge to influence consumer decisions.

Management

The Management major focuses on leadership, organizational behavior, and strategic planning. Students develop the skills necessary to manage teams and projects effectively, making them suitable for various managerial roles across industries.

Information Systems

The Information Systems major combines business knowledge with IT skills. Students learn about system analysis, database management, and cybersecurity, preparing them for careers in technology management and system analysis.

International Business

The International Business major provides students with a global perspective on business operations. They study international trade, cross-cultural management, and global marketing, preparing them for careers in multinational corporations.

Business Administration

The Business Administration major offers a broad foundation in business principles, allowing students to explore various disciplines. This major is ideal for those looking to gain a well-rounded understanding of business without specializing in one area.

Unique Features of the College of Business and Economics

The College of Business and Economics at Cal State Fullerton boasts several unique features that distinguish it from other institutions. One notable aspect is its accreditation by the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB), a recognition achieved by only a small percentage of business schools worldwide.

Additionally, the college offers experiential learning opportunities, including internships, co-op programs, and involvement in student-run organizations. These hands-on experiences allow students to apply classroom knowledge in real-world settings, enhancing their employability upon graduation.

The college also provides access to state-of-the-art facilities, including dedicated study spaces, computer labs, and collaborative workspaces that foster innovation and teamwork among students. Furthermore, the faculty are actively engaged in research, providing students with insights into the latest trends and developments in the business world.

Career Opportunities for Business Graduates

Graduates from Cal State Fullerton's business programs have a wealth of career opportunities available to them. cal state fullerton business majors: My Seven Sons and How We Raised Each Other Don Diamont, 2025-05-01 Soap star Don Diamont's most interesting storyline to date is being the real-life father and ringleader of his seven rambunctious boys. Called a daytime deity by Soap Opera Digest, Don Diamont is best known as the dashing publishing titan with steel abs, Dollar Bill Spencer, on the most-watched daytime drama in the world, The Bold and the Beautiful. But all of that takes second place to his most important role to date: father to seven boys. By turns hilarious and poignant, My Seven Sons and How We Raised Each Other is a family memoir for our time. Don writes with openness and courage about the ways his family came together: by marriage, divorce, the death of his sister, and marriage again. Today's blended families might look different from the households of even a few decades ago, but the first dates, first cars, busting curfew, talking back, grounding, broken hearts, laughs, tears, and the love are the same. From his childhood growing up in LA, to his Zoolander phase as a model in both Paris and Los Angeles, to the iconic place he now occupies in daytime television, Don also gives us a glimpse into a life that at times could have been scripted for a soap opera. And, with brutal honesty, he tells of the personal devastation he suffered after the deaths of his father, brother, and sister. My Seven Sons is required reading for everyone who is a parent, and all those who have one.
