How to Get Started with First Citizens Business Banking

Getting started with First Citizens business banking is a straightforward process. Businesses interested in exploring the bank's offerings can follow these steps:

Open an Account

To open a business account, potential clients should gather the necessary documentation, including:

- Business license and registration
- Employer Identification Number (EIN)
- Operating agreement or partnership agreement
- Identification for all signers on the account

Once the documentation is prepared, businesses can visit a local branch or apply online to set up their accounts.

Consult with a Banking Specialist

After opening an account, businesses are encouraged to meet with a banking specialist to discuss their financial needs and explore the various services available. This meeting is an opportunity to ask questions and gain insights into optimizing their banking experience.
