prayers for your business: 40 Days of Prayer for My Business Becky A. Davis, 2017-01-30 Every day for the last five years, I've read a prayer for my business, and I know without a doubt, those prayers are what have helped me grow, sustain and build a successful business. Those prayers gave me strength when things got hard, when I struggled in business and when I doubted myself. I knew that praying for my business was a game changer and I wanted to help other entrepreneurs create a disciplined behavior to pray for 40-days and watch God move in your business. The number 40 shows up often in the Bible; specifically, 126 times. In the New Testament, Jesus was tempted for 40 days and 40 nights (Matthew 4:2). There were 40 days between Jesus' resurrection and ascension (Acts 1:3). The Bible seems to use 40 to emphasize a time of testing and strengthening, and after the 40 days, there is an emphasis on spiritual truth, a new beginning, transition, change or renewal. It has been said that 40 is the length of time necessary to accomplish major parts of Gods Plan. This book has 40 prayers for your business. Prayer that helps you push through when things get tough, and they always get tough in business. These prayers help you remember to keep God first in your business and to continue to acknowledge him on your business journey. The prayers in this book are a guide to help build your spiritual muscle in life and business. These prayers will help you weather the storms that come by building a closer and intimate relationship with God. Take one vitamin P (prayer) each day for essential spiritual nutrients.

prayers for your business: The Prayer Powered Entrepreneur Kim Avery, 2019-12-31 “A practical and powerful resource for any business owner who desires to do business led and empowered by God.”—Shae Bynes, author of The Kingdom Driven Entrepreneur’s Guide While Christian entrepreneurs start their days with prayer, the hustle and bustle of running their own businesses quickly takes focus away from their vital partnership with the almighty God. As a result, prayers for business are often broad, unfocused, and strictly tied to the entrepreneur’s vision of ideal results. The Prayer Powered Entrepreneur model walks entrepreneurs through 31 days of recognizing God as CEO through an inside-out system of praying for transformation: In themselves Their relationship with God Their relationship with others Their relationship with their business Culminating in praying for the impact they want their business to have in the world. Kim Avery encourages entrepreneurs to keep God at the center of everything, praying in alignment with the things He has already promised, and anticipating His daily activity in their lives. During this month-long journey, business owners learn how to build a better business, live a better life, and make a bigger impact—all through the simple practice of inside-out prayer. “Kim Avery gives everyone who is called into such an entrepreneurial challenge a wealth of wisdom and an easy-to-implement practical tool to keep one going. prayers for your business: Make Your City a House of Prayer Lynn Ferder, 2015-07-30 This book explores the pastor-intercessor relationship in making our city a house of prayer by suggesting ways to rethink how we can interact with cross-denominational leadership, opening the way for unity to flourish. Additionally, we provide guidelines for appropriate altar ministry and corporate prayer settings, prayers for youth and children, and tools for writing your own prayers addressing the mission and vision statement of your own, or other, ministries. We also address the business aspect of starting a ministry and walk the reader through the process of taking a small prayer group from the home into the community and making your city a house of prayer. Any book with a title like Make Your City a House of Prayer begs to be read! We in the USA are such an independent, individualistic bunch and often suffer from not praying and working together to advance His Kingdom in our cities and nation. Such heart unity, my colleagues and I have observed in many national prayer initiatives, is what facilitates the breakthroughs and transformations of the Lord even in impossible, discouraging, oppressive situations. We do need the kind of paradigm that Lynn Ferder shares in her book. She has much experience in personally living out this paradigm and in training many others to do so. Her guidelines for corporate, united prayer and the place of children and youth will also be extremely valuable. I heartily endorse this book and its wonderful theme. May it catch on across our nation and in other nations as well! John Robb, chairman, International Prayer Connect prayers for your business: Your Life is None of Your Business Dale A. Johnson, 2012-09-25 The author and the translator have used this book in Chinese classrooms to teach oral English, translation, and philosophical ideas for debate. The text weaves together three strands made of the ten ox-herding paintings of Buddhist tradition, the author's personal biography, and Christian theology. These strands are woven into a fabric of thought to stimulate discussion about psychology, philosophy, and American culture.
