Learners focus on the present, passé composé, imparfait, and future tenses, along with imperative and conditional moods. Proper conjugation is necessary for clear and accurate expression in both written and spoken French.

Pronouns and Their Uses

Bien dit french 2 grammar expands on various types of pronouns, essential for sentence variety and avoiding repetition. Subject, direct and indirect object, reflexive, and relative pronouns are introduced and practiced to build accuracy and complexity in language use.

Subject and Object Pronouns

Comparative and Superlative Forms

Students learn to form comparisons using plus... que, moins... que, and aussi... que for comparatives, as well as superlative forms using le/la/les plus and le/la/les moins. These tools enable more nuanced descriptions.

Other Negation Forms

Additional negation expressions such as ne...jamais (never), ne...plus (no longer), and ne...rien (nothing) are introduced to express various negative meanings. Understanding these expands learners' expressive range.

Forming Questions
