charles virtue on doreen virtue: Mega Book.LIGHTWORKERS 2013. THE BEST,FRIENDLIEST,CERTIFIED,MOST HONEST Maximillien De Lafayette, 2013 This book is customer and client's oriented! In our research, selection, and interviews with lightworkers, we placed a strong emphasis on customer's best interest. Many questions rotate around a lightworker's devotion to his or her client, how a practitioner walks an extra mile with a client, and the rapport between a lightworker and client. Consequently, the book was written not to promote particular practitioners, but to serve the clients, and inform them about lightworkers who care most about them. Bottom line is line: Protect the interest of clients. This is why this book was written. Yes, this book is customer and client's oriented, and it shows in the questions we have asked, and we kept asking numerous times with minor variations, to be absolutely sure and certain, that the lightworkers have properly answered the questions, and to give them other opportunities to elaborate further on how indeed they have clients' best interest in heart, and on their minds.

charles virtue on doreen virtue: The Indigo Children Beth Singler, 2017-09-18 The Indigo Child concept is a contemporary New Age redefinition of self. Indigo Children are described in their primary literature as a spiritually, psychically, and genetically advanced generation. Born from the early 1980s, the Indigo Children are thought to be here to usher in a new golden age by changing the world's current social paradigm. However, as they are paradigm busters, they also claim to find it difficult to fit into contemporary society. Indigo Children recount difficult childhoods and school years, and the concept has also been used by members of the community to reinterpret conditions such as Attention Deficit Hyperactive Disorder (ADHD) and autism. Cynics, however, can claim that the Indigo Child concept is an example of special snowflake syndrome, and parodies abound. This book is the fullest introduction to the Indigo Child concept to date. Employing both on- and offline ethnographic methods, Beth Singler objectively considers the place of the Indigo Children in contemporary debates around religious identity, self-creation, online participation, conspiracy theories, race and culture, and definitions of the New Age movement.

charles virtue on doreen virtue: The Boy Who Met Jesus Immaculée Ilibagiza, 2012-11-28 It's the greatest story never told: that of a boy who met Jesus and dared to ask Him all the questions that have consumed mankind since the dawn of time. His name was Segatashya. He was a shepherd born into a penniless and illiterate pagan family in the most remote region of Rwanda. He never attended school, never saw a bible, and never set foot in a church. Then one summer day in 1982 while the 15-year-old was resting beneath a shade tree, Jesus Christ paid him a visit. Jesus asked the startled young man if he'd be willing to go on a mission to remind mankind how to live a life that leads to heaven. Segatashya accepted the assignment on one condition: that Jesus answer all his questions-and all the questions of those he met on his travels-about faith, religion, the purpose of life, and the nature of heaven and hell. Jesus agreed to the boy's terms, and Segatashya set off on what would become one of the most miraculous journeys in modern history. Although he was often accused of being a charlatan and beaten as a result, Segatashya's innocent heart and powerful spiritual wisdom quickly won over even the most cynical of critics. Soon, this teenage boy who had never learned to read or write was discussing theology with leading biblical scholars and advising pastors and priests of all denominations. He became so famous in Rwanda that the Catholic Church investigated his story. The doctors and psychiatrists who examined Segatashya all agreed that they were witnessing a miracle. His words and simple truths converted thousands of hearts and souls wherever he went. Before his death during the 1994 Rwandan genocide, Segatashya continued his travels and conversations with Jesus for eight years, asking Him what we all want to know: · Why were we created? · Why must we suffer? · Why do bad things happen to good people? · When will the world end? · Is there life after death? · How do we get to Heaven? The answers to these and many other momentous, life-changing questions are revealed in this riveting book, which is the first full account of Segatashya's remarkable life story. Written with grace, passion, and loving humor by Immaculée Ilibagiza, Segatashya's close friend and a survivor of the Rwandan holocaust herself, this truly inspirational work is certain to move you in profound ways. No matter what your faith or religious beliefs, Segatashya's words will bring you comfort and joy, and prepare your heart for this life . . . and for life everlasting.

charles virtue on doreen virtue: The Eyes of Faith (Large Print 16pt) Ben Stein, 2011-04 An emotion common to humankind is fear. Fear dogs our days, makes us lose sleep, ruins our relationships, and takes the joy out of living. The strongest, best defense against that emotion is to see through the eyes of faith. As such, Ben Stein brings you 500 ways to look at life in this way so that you can triumph over fear. Ben absorbed many of the positive thoughts within these pages at 12-Step meetings he has attended, he has applied them to his own life, and he's found that they work. They're simple, but extremely effective. For example: I do not know exactly why faith and surrender work. I just know that they do work. Say it to yourself and believe it: My life is a great place to be today. I would rather be me than anyone else, and that's saying something. Life is about waking up, breaking up, shaking up, making up . . . and meditation to keep the human spirit calm. There are two forms of worship: worship of God and worship of ourselves. Guess which kind works? Taken regularly, concepts such as these will make your life easier, calmer, and definitely more enjoyable.

charles virtue on doreen virtue: Are You Living Your Life, or Survivng Your Past? Karen Cesario Rizzo, 2014-11-05 Are you Living Your Life or Surviving Your Past? How a message from the other side taught me to live my life instead of just surviving it. Having experienced tragedy and pain as a young child, I knew I felt different. But I always knew I was being protected by angels. I could hear them, feel them, speak to them, and see them at an early age. As I reached my late teens, the betrayal of trust deepened. I shut out my angels, their love, my inner voices and guidance system, and made decisions based solely on pain and fear. My angels never left me, and they continued to send me love and guidance. I chose not to listen, hear, or see what they wanted me to know. After many years, I made the decision to lift the veil of pain and fear. It was a painful process I had to endure. As a result, I began experiencing increased psychic awareness beyond what I could comprehend. The journey has been amazing. Today I am clairvoyant, clairaudient, claircognizant, and clairsentient. I am a medium and a Reiki practitioner. I believe these gifts of intuition are accessible to everyone. Through love and healing, you can be assured a life of joy and complete happiness. Its time to be the person you were meant to be the person you know you can be. Its time to start making your dreams come true and living those dreams. Its time to stop surviving your past and start living your life.
