connections answers 22 july 2024: A World of Wounds Nancy J. Manring, 2025-11-04 At the end of the Reagan administration, American public opinion polls showed there were no discernible differences based on political party in response to the question, Do you consider yourself an environmentalist? However, in the early 1990s, a partisan gulf between conservatives and liberals emerged around environmental issues. Today, half as many Republicans self-identify as environmentalists when compared to Democrats. Political stagnation on climate action, in turn, has led to a growing number of Americans of all ages who experience ecological grief (known as solastalgia) and eco-anxiety (a chronic fear of environmental doom). These emotions emerged in response to the existential distress associated with living in a world of relentless environmental damage and irreversible ecological losses: a world of wounds. This book offers an antidote to political frustration and hopelessness. Nancy J. Manring provides an indispensable analysis of the multi-decade, conservative war against American environmentalism and maps out realistic strategies for rebuilding a bipartisan environmental movement. Nurturing authentic hope, in contrast to blind optimism or false promises, begins with an unflinching look at both planetary and political realities. Choosing authentic hope is an ongoing process that requires emotional honesty, courage, and action. This forceful book serves as both a tool for change and a spirited scholarly intervention.

connections answers 22 july 2024: Enhancing Educational Access Through Innovative Educator Preparation Pathways Sande, Beverly, Marvel, Aaron, 2025-09-10 Various factors contribute to the growing crisis of teacher shortages, including declining enrollment in teacher preparation programs, increasing teacher attrition, and many teachers approaching retirement. School leaders retiring, transferring schools, or pursuing new opportunities within the education sector are not being replaced by qualified candidates. Furthermore, many school districts nationwide report principal vacancies and a severe need for more qualified applicants to replace them. Consequently, many educator preparation programs have developed transformational initiatives to recruit, prepare, and retain teachers in their partnering school districts. These programs are critical for alleviating the impact of teacher shortages on schools and students. Enhancing Educational Access Through Innovative Educator Preparation Pathways highlights some of these initiatives and their impact on the school systems. It demonstrates how these models can be implemented to help recruit and retain individuals interested in becoming teachers or school principals. Covering topics such as school-university partnerships, leadership pipelines, and teacher diversity, this book is an excellent resource for school principals, administrators, educators, human resource managers, business owners, researchers, academicians, and more.

connections answers 22 july 2024: Capitalism in the Colonies A. G. Hopkins, 2024-07-16 An account that challenges the conventional views of African merchants under colonialism, examining the emergence and changing fortunes of indigenous entrepreneurs in Lagos, Nigeria In Capitalism in the Colonies, A. G. Hopkins provides the first substantial assessment of the fortunes of African entrepreneurs under colonial rule. Examining the lives and careers of 100 merchants in Lagos, Nigeria, between 1850 and 1931, Hopkins challenges conventional views of the contribution made by indigenous entrepreneurs to the long-run economic development of Nigeria. He argues that African merchants in Lagos not only survived, but were also responsible for key innovations in trade, construction, farming, and finance that are essential for understanding the development of Nigeria's economy. The book is based on a large, representative sample and covers a time span that traces mercantile fortunes over two and three generations. Drawing on a wide range of sources, Hopkins shows that indigenous entrepreneurs were far more adventurous than expatriate firms. African merchants in Lagos pioneered motor vehicles, sewing machines, publishing, tanneries, and new types of internal trade. They founded the construction industry that built Lagos into a major port city, moved inland to start the cocoa-farming industry, and developed the finance sector that is still vital to Nigeria's economy. They also took the lead in changing single-owned businesses into limited liability companies, creating freehold property rights and promoting wage labour. In short, Hopkins argues, they were the capitalists who introduced the institutions of capitalism into Nigeria. The story of African merchants in Nigeria reminds us, he writes, that economic structures have no life of their own until they are animated by the actions of creative individuals.
