Maxwell's Good Leaders Ask Great Questions Everest Media,, 2022-05-16T22:59:00Z Please note: This is a companion version & not the original book. Sample Book Insights: #1 I've been asked questions for forty years, and I've learned that the more I ask questions, the more valuable they become. I want to share the impact that questions have made on my life and answer questions from people around the world. #2 If you want answers, you must ask questions. No one has helped me understand the value of questions more than my friend Bobb Biehl. In his book Asking Profound Questions, he writes: There is a gigantic difference between the person who has no questions to help him process situations and the person who has profound questions available. #3 Questions are the keys to opening the doors that lead to opportunities, experiences, and people. For example, when interviewing former secretary of state Condoleezza Rice, I wanted to ask good questions that would allow me to understand her better. #4 As a leader, you must always be looking forward for the sake of your team. When you face a problem and don't know what steps to take to advance the team, ask the following questions: Why do we have this problem. How do we solve it. What specific steps must we take to solve it.

john maxwell leadership capacity quiz: Summary of John C. Maxwell's Leadership 101 Everest Media,, 2022-05-18T22:59:00Z Please note: This is a companion version & not the original book. Sample Book Insights: #1 The Law of the Lid states that leadership ability is the lid that determines a person's level of effectiveness. The lower an individual's ability to lead, the lower the lid on his potential. The higher the leadership, the greater the effectiveness. #2 The McDonald brothers, Dick and Maurice, opened a small drive-in restaurant in Pasadena in 1937. Their business grew rapidly, and by 1948, they had moved the operation to San Bernardino, a working-class boomtown fifty miles east of Los Angeles. They eliminated the carhops and served only walk-up customers. #3 The McDonald brothers were successful restaurant owners, but they lacked the leadership skills to make their franchise idea work. They failed because they were not leaders. #4 The lid in the life and leadership of Ray Kroc was sky high. Between 1955 and 1959, Kroc succeeded in opening 100 restaurants. Four years later, there were 500 McDonald's. Today the company has opened more than 21,000 restaurants in 100 countries.
