tu mundo textbook answer key: The Critical Poem Thorpe Running, 1996 In this book, scholar Thorpe Running shows that a skeptical approach to both language and poetry places eight poets from three countries in Latin America within a strain of poetry prefigured by Stephane Mallarme. Pablo Neruda, Mario Paz, Jorge Luis Borges, Roberto Juarroz, Alejandra Pizarnik, Alberto Girri, Juan Luis Borges, Gonzalo Millan, and David Huerta span three different generations. In addition to their cultural and geographical differences, their poetry bears no obvious similarities. All eight, however, are poets who think, or thinking poets, and underlying the work of these probing writers is the burning question: Does language do what it is supposed to do? The answer is negative for all these poets who see their poems as being made up of words that don't work.--BOOK JACKET.Title Primary field provided by Blackwell North America, Inc.
